SCHOOL ATTENDANCE
ALMOST NORMAL

School enrollment came up to expectations yesterday according to Ernest L. Thurston, superintendent of the District Public Schools. The number of pupils who returned was $3,181 as compared with $3,000 when school was dismissed for the influenza and $5,560 for the same date last year.

"This is very good, indeed," said Mr. Thurston. "Of course, many children are still kept from school by influenza or by heavy colds. The second day's enrollment is always heavier than the first after a vacation."

"However, we cannot tell for several days just how many boys and girls have taken positions and are not willing to give them up again."

HEAR WOES OF ROOM RENTERS

New Department Will Adjust Troubles of Landladies.

Contradicting officially the prevailing opinion that war workers alone are protected by the War Department, Capt. Julius L. Peyser, yesterday announced that a division has been formed especially to hear landladies' troubles.

Lieut. William M. Conrad, of the Quartermaster Corps, who has been adjusting war-worker-landlady complications for some time has been made the official head of the division. He has settled more than eighty such cases in the last few days.

All cases brought to him will be carefully investigated and action will proceed accordingly. Where necessary girls will be moved to other houses and where landladies make a practice of getting into trouble with roomers they will be recorded and dealt with accordingly.

"This decision by Capt. Peyser is a direct outcome of the dispute over the Salsburg law," continued Lieut. Conrad. "Many landladies claimed that tenants were unjustly favored through the workings of the law. The new ruling is intended to and will do away with any such impression continuing in the minds of either war worker, tenant or landlady."

ELEVEN NAMES ADDED TO W. S. S. $1,000 CLUB

Eleven new names have been added to the rolls of "The $1,000 Club," composed of purchasers of war savings stamps to that amount, as a result of the campaign now being waged under the general direction of Chairman Charles J. Bell to increase its roster to the allotted strength of 1,000 members.

The new additions to the list are the Star Laundry Co., J. E. Perry, E. Frank Gebert, Otis E. Kent, Elmer W. Holland, Mrs. Elmer W. Holland, Mrs. H. W. Van Senden, Mrs. James K. Jones, Benjamin S. Minor, H. U. Ridesdale and Francis Virginia Corbin. The last eight names were obtained by Riley G. Spiker of the City Postoffice, who bears the unofficial title of "champion W. S. S. salesman."

LUTHERAN BODIES DECIDE TO UNITE

The Home Missions Board and the Church Extension Society of the Lutheran Church will merge, it was announced last night. The merger will probably take place this month.

The new body will be known as the Board of Home Missions. It is estimated that there are 8,000,000 baptized Lutherans in America, and that only 5,000,000 of these belong to congregations. It will be the purpose of the Board of Home Missions to induce the remaining 3,000,000 Lutherans to attend church.

Consolidation, it is thought, is necessary to promote the Lutheran faith in America. A duplication of church buildings will also be avoided.

Endeavor to Change Cotton Compress Rule

Cotton compress men were in conference with the price fixing committee of the War Industries Board yesterday trying to get a better price for compressing from the Railroad Administration. With the shortage of cars the Railroad Administration absorbed the cost of compression into freight rates and thus required the compress men to put more compression on the cotton so that it would occupy less space in the cars. Compress men now claim that this is more costly to them than the lower compression and have asked the Railroad Administration for a better price. It has referred the matter to the price fixing committee.

ASK SCHOOLS TO AID DRIVE

Board to Consider Plan of War Work Committee Tomorrow.

Official recognition by the public school authorities of the District of Columbia of the "Victory Boys" and "Victory Girls" drive in connection with the United War Work Campaign November 11-18 has been asked by the Washington committee and will be passed on at a meeting of the Washington board of education at the Franklin School tomorrow.

It is planned, if the approval of the board is given, to enlist every boy and girl in the grade and high schools in a great army of 60,000 pupils, each one responsible sponsor for the welfare of a soldier. The matter will be brought to the attention of the pupils by the school principals and teachers and by speakers representing the seven united agencies at general assemblies in the schools. It is also planned to have one or more pupils in each school give a talk at general assembly on subjects furnished by the speaker's bureau of the United War Work Campaign.

Today another meeting in the interest of the campaign will be held on the south steps of the Treasury Department at noon. Schumann-Heink, the noted opera singer, who has given her services to the United War Work Campaign committee, will sing.

Princess Lazarovich of Serbia, an American woman, who married a Serbian prince and who has seen much of the work of the seven united organizations in Europe, will deliver an address on the campaign. The meeting will be attended by thousands of workers.

WAR WORKERS' HOMES READY BY DECEMBER

Women war workers are eager to live in the new government hotels for women according to the Housing Corporation which is constructing the buildings. A large number of applications have been received for rooms, they report.

Twenty-six departments have been asked to file applications for their employees. Although but five or six departments have as yet sent in their lists the corporation reports 6,600 applications.

The War Department alone, says the corporation, has asked for 2,500 single rooms which is 250 more than the Union Station Plaza and the Capitol Plaza operations will house.

The departments will be given a number of rooms proportionate to the requests made for them in their department.

The corporation announces that the new homes will be ready some time in December.

Volunteer autoists to aid in United Drive

The War Camp Community Service has issued a call for volunteers with motor cars for Wednesday, November 6, to assist in work for the United Drive.

The W. C. C. S. has been requested by the officials who have the United Drive in charge to distribute all the posters of the seven great organizations who are affiliated in the drive. This includes the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the War Camp Community Service, the Jewish Welfare Board, the National Catholic War Council, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army.

Anyone who wishes to give their services for one day to the United Drive can do so by calling up the War Camp Community Service, Main 232, branch 23.

Presidential Autographs Bring Smileage $2,200

The President's and Mrs. Wilson's autographs on two $5 smileage books were auctioned off for $2,200 last week during the smileage drive in St. Louis, according to an announcement made today by Harold Braddock, director of smileage for the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities.

The auction sale took place on the floor of the Merchants' Exchange. After a great deal of spirited bidding the autographed smileage books were knocked down to Clarence H. Howard, president of the Commonwealth Steel Co., who was the highest bidder. $2,200 was the price paid for the books as souvenirs to the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which had charge of the drive.

Schools and Churches Are Scored by Bureau

Following an investigation of the cases of 183 delinquent New York state children, the Children's Bureau of the Labor Department yesterday made public a report which scores the "pitifully inadequate" facilities of the district school, the "most unequal use of the opportunity" by the church, and the "curious attention" by justices of the peace to the children's reports.

The report recommends county juvenile courts or the extension of the powers of such courts now existing and the appointment of a probation officer for every inhabited section of rural as well as the urban communities.

BISHOP GORE ENDS VISIT

Anglican Prelate of Oxford Spends Day Discussing Our Schools.

School work and the organization of the school system of America were discussed yesterday by Rt. Rev. Charles Gore, Bishop of Oxford, and President P. C. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education. Bishop Gore is in the United States as an English delegate of the National Committee on the Churches and Social Affairs of the War.

"The relation of the school system of our country to the Federal government," said Dr. Claxton last night, "was a problem that Dr. Gore wished to have explained. As a Bishop of Oxford he was interested in our entire educational system. He wanted to know the proportion of children entering high school, and the proportion which finished. He was especially desirous to know how we have maintained our schools during the war."

Yesterday morning Dr. Gore was a visitor to the Corcoran Art Gallery. In the afternoon he was received by President Wilson. Dr. Gore left for Baltimore on a late afternoon train.

While in Washington Bishop Gore has been the guest of Bishop Harding of Washington, at the Cathedral Close, Mount St. Albans. His tour takes him to New York and other northern cities before sailing for England.
